THE FEAST OF THE BAPTISM OF THE LORD

This Sunday brings to a close our extended celebrations of the Lord's birth and infancy with the feast of his baptism inaugurating the commencement of his public life and appropriately the resumption of our regular schedules. The feast is a reminder of the significance of our own consecration to Christ in the Church and the commitment entailed both personally and to those whom we may have sponsored as godparents in times past or recent. It is our duty to keep alive that gift and to pass it on to others.

EVENTS & MEETINGS

- ▶ GEN-C Youth Meeting: This Wednesday Wed. 12th Jan. 7.00pm – Parish Library. All interested young people welcome!
- ▶ Meditation Group: Resumes Thurs 13th Jan 11.00am at the Priory. First-time participants also more than welcome.
- ▶ Feast of St. Thomas Aquinas: This year we again plan to celebrate the feast of one of our parish patrons with a picnic day at St. Thomas' Church on Sunday 30th January following the morning Masses. More details next week. Make a Note in your new diaries for 2011.

NEW TO THE PARISH?

We are always eager to meet those who are new to the area. Please don't hesitate to make yourself known if we have missed you. We are always happy to have you involved and feel at home among us. Copies of a helpful booklet entitled "I Can Do That!" about the many activities in the parish are available at the church door and we hope you might take one. Fill out and return a Welcome Card for us with your details. Thanks!

Baptisms in the Parish

Our parish welcomes all enquiries about baptism of infants. Meetings are arranged periodically to help the family to prepare for the christening and even though the baptism is usually a private event a welcoming ceremony is celebrated at one of our Sunday Masses prior to the christening. For further information contact the Parish Centre.

FAREWELL BROTHER JEPSER

For the past five weeks Bro. Jepsers Bermudez O.S.A. has been visiting the parish and sharing in our community life in South Yarra. We wish him well as he departs to the Augustinian Formation Community in Sydney and to the resumption of his theological studies.

Parish Library

Anyone who is yet to explore our parish library resources is always welcome to visit during the week. Open Mon-fri. 9am to 5pm. Computers and internet access available. Good variety of magazines also!
