FIRST COMMUNION

This Sunday, 26th June nine children will make their First Communion at the 10.00am Mass at St. Joseph's. One of the psalms says "that you may tell the next generation, such is our God". The parents of these children have been doing just that, as speaking from their own experience they have prepared their children for this day. Caitlin English, Sr. Maureen and Fr. Abel have assisted. We all pray that these children will continue to grow in the knowledge and love of Christ.

SAME SEX MARRIAGE?

Jesuit jurist Fr Frank Brennan SJ urges that governments legislate promptly to give legal recognition to same-sex unions in the Australian community.
