THE SEASON OF LENT – TIME OF RENEWAL

Ash Wednesday – March 9th this year - ushers in the Season of Lent, a time of reflection, renewal and preparation for the Feast of Easter. Catholics traditionally make an effort to attend an Ash Wednesday Mass, the Stations of the Cross and to make some sacrifice during this season such as supporting Project Compassion. Ash Wednesday and Good Friday are also days of fast and abstinence from meat except for children and the elderly.

PARISH LENTEN HOME DISCUSSION PROGRAM

We invite parishioners to attend one of our parish discussion groups by nominating one of the times and venues offered on the notice board and flyers at the church door. Meetings begin this coming week and continue through Lent for six weeks till Palm Sunday.

NEW ENGLISH MASS TEXTS

The new translation in English of the revised Roman Missal will be introduced gradually to all parish communities beginning with the people's parts between Pentecost Sunday (June 12) and the first Sunday of Advent. An initial opportunity to become familiar with the new responses will be provided in the parish soon.

International Women's Day March 6th

This Sunday is celebrated as International Women's Day in the Church in conjunction with various celebrations around the world.
