CENTENARY - FEAST OF MARY MCKILLOP
AUGUST 8TH 2009.

In this centenary year of the death of Mother Mary McKillop, our Australian Blessed, many celebrations are organized around the country. We continue to pray for her canonization and that her example will inspire many to follow her example of service to both Church and the community, especially among young people.

Blessed Mary McKillop

Our parish is fortunate in having three resident priests when other parishes face amalgamation, closure, and /or reduction in the number of masses.

Frs. John and Gerry are at retirement age but have generously indicated they would occasionally like to assist other parishes and clergy with heavy weekend commitments.

Two of our Sunday masses are at the same time, 10.30. We would like to rearrange the schedule so that, in the event of only one priest being available we might still maintain our current four masses. (It is now almost impossible to find another priest to supply Sunday masses.)

In the next few weeks the opinions and suggestions of parishioners will be canvassed and a decision reached. While some may be inconvenienced, we hope that all will accept the changes in a spirit of understanding. Please complete and return a survey form.

Fr. Brian Buckley O.S.A. P.P.

Parish Council

At the Parish Annual General Meeting last Sunday seven members of the Parish Council were elected: Anne Semple, Marc Dixon, Andrew George (continuing members) and Anne-Gael Oster, Mary Gaynor, Mark Costello, Christopher See were newly-nominated. Congratulations to all and sincere thanks to retiring members, Pete Johns (chairman), Yvonne Bolland, Mary McCormick and Teresa Fels.
